Regional Theater Night - "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof"

by the Bergen County Players in Oradell, NJ
Dinner 6:00 PM - Show 8:00 PM
Big Daddy. Big Mama. Brick. And of course, Maggie "the Cat". Iconic characters in a timeless drama where repressed desires beset a wealthy Southern family whose lives are stripped of pretense in a shattering moment of revelation. This Tennessee Williams classic won the Pulitzer Prize and the New York Drama Critics' Circle Award in 1955. This is truly a great night in the theater performed by one of New Jersey's best community theater groups. We'll travel to River Edge, New Jersey on the CCNY Bus, which will leave the College at 5 PM, and feast on a gourmet Italian meal at Sanducci's Trattoria, 570 Kinderkamock Road, River Edge, and attend the 8 PM show. Members $65.00 per person - Non-Members $70.00 per person

Friday, March 19, 2010 - 6 PM

New York Historical Society Exhibition: Abe Lincoln and New York.

Buffet Dinner supplied by Bassett Caterers. The New York Historical Society, located at 2 West 72nd Street and Central Park West, is celebrating the nation's Lincoln Bicentennial, from the launch of Abraham Lincoln's 1860 campaign with a speech at Cooper Union through the unprecedented outpouring of grief at his funeral procession in 1865. Discover the surprisingly central role New York City played in the career of our 16th President. For the first time a museum exhibition traces the crucial relationship between America's greatest President and its greatest City.

Members $45 per person - Non-Members $50 per person

Tuesday, April 6, 2010 - 6 PM

Dinner at The French Culinary Institute

You'll enjoy (guaranteed) a great 4 course dinner at the renowned L'Ecole restaurant at The International Culinary Center, located at 462 Broadway and Grand Street, and we'll tour the Center afterward. Time permitting we'll also visit the beautiful New Museum on the Bowery.

Members $75 per person - Non-Members $80 per person

Tuesday, April 20, 2010

Dinner and "West Side Story"

See the classic musical at the Palace Theater, on Broadway and 47th Street, following dinner at Dallas BBQ on 42nd Street. More than 50 years ago a show about New York City changed musical theater forever. Now this Tony Award Winning musical has come home to make history once again. The score by Leonard Bernstein and Stephen Sondheim ("Maria", "America", "Tonight", "Somewhere") is one of the best ever written.

$115 per person (Dinner & Show for less than the cost of a regular Orchestra seat.

A Discounted Orchestra seat alone is $90 per person)
Dinner: 5 PM ■ Show: 7 PM

Saturday, May 8, 2010 - 10 AM Walking and Eating Tour of the Lower East Side & the East Village

Revisit the past and visit the Tenement Museum, a landmark building and a groundbreaking museum, which tells the story of 97 Orchard Street, built in 1863. Then we'll nosh our way through time in ethnic New York. Many food stops feature knishes, smoked fish, pickles, Belgium fries, Italian pastry, cappuccino, old time candy and Katz's Deli samplings. Tour led by renowned tour educator Art Zuckerman.

Members $64 per person - Non-Members $69 per person

Saturday, May 15, 2010 - 10 AM

Tour of New York Botanical Gardens

You'll take a guided tour of one of New York's beautiful jewels in the Bronx, including the Emily Dickinson Poetry & Flower Show, and have lunch in the Garden.

Members $55 per person - Non-Members $60 per person

Saturday, May 22, 2010 - 10 AM

Tour The Great Falls of the Passaic River

Travel by Bus/Mini Van to The Great Falls of the Passaic River, a dramatic 77 foot waterfall that is only 15 minutes from the George Washington Bridge. In addition to touring these magnificent falls we'll visit a hydroelectric plant, a castle, and the historic and ethnically charming City of Paterson, New Jersey, where you'll enjoy a sumptuous lunch. Tour led by renowned tour educator Art Zuckerman.
