

HAVE YOU JOINED THE CCNY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION YET?

The Alumni Association was founded by the graduating class of 1853. We are a membership organization dedicated to advancing the interests of City College, fostering a spirit of fraternity and sorority among graduates and servicing alumni. The Alumni Association represents over 100,000 living alumni. Among the CCNY Alumni are: nine Nobel Laureates; Pulitzer Prize Winners Jonathan Neuman and Oscar Hijuelos; such authors as Upton Sinclair, Irving Howe and Bernard Malamud; award winning journalists Daniel Schorr, John Johnson and David Díaz; civil rights leader A. Philip Randolph; actors Judd Hirsch, Lee J. Cobb, Ben Gazzara and Zero Mostel; lyricist Ira Gershwin; astronaut Mario Runco; former NYC Mayors Ed Koch and Abraham Beame; Olympic Athlete Jane Katz; former Secretary of State Colin Powell, and the list goes on and on.

Membership in the Alumni Association offers you discounts on merchandise, movies, car rentals, restaurants, insurance plans, an opportunity to participate in a job referral program, subscription to the seasonal Alumnus magazine and the Annual Wall Planning Calendar, as well as admission to social and cultural special events sponsored by the Alumni Association. We are made up of thirteen special interest or affiliate groups, two constituent societies, and twelve chapters across the country, which are listed below. As a member, you may elect to join up to three of these groups and you will receive notices of their events and meetings.
